other than members of the defense team (limited to: co-counsel, paralegals, investigators, translators, litigation support personnel, secretarial staff, and the defendant);

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each of the individuals to whom disclosure of discovery materials is made shall be provided a copy of this Protective Order by defense counsel of record and will be advised by defense counsel of record that he or she shall not further disseminate or discuss the materials and must follow the terms of this Protective Order;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall only be permitted to possess printed hard copies of the discovery materials bearing the discovery markings "-DEF." The defendant shall not possess any other discovery materials and shall only access discovery materials that do not bear the discovery markings "-DEF" either (i) in the presence of defense counsel of record or any paralegals or investigators designated by defense counsel of record, or (ii) outside the presence of the defense team via an electronic copy of the discovery materials stored at the correctional facility at which the defendant is held;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the discovery materials may not be provided to any foreign persons or entities and may not be transmitted outside of the United States for any purpose;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel of record for the defendant may seek authorization of the Court, with notice to the Government, to show (but not provide copies of) such discovery materials to persons not described in the preceding paragraphs, if it is determined that it is necessary to do so for the purpose of preparing the defense of the case;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all such discovery materials are to be provided to the defense, and used by the defense, solely for the purpose of allowing the defendant to prepare his defense to the charges in the Indictment, and that none of the discovery materials produced by the Government to the defense shall be disseminated to any other third party not described in the preceding paragraphs;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that at the conclusion of this case, defense counsel of record shall return to the Government all copies of the discovery materials provided in this case;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that nothing in this Order shall preclude the Government from seeking a further Protective Order pursuant to Section 3 of the Classified Information Procedures Act, 18 U.S.C. App. 3 § 3, to protect against disclosure in this case of any classified information disclosed by the Government;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that nothing in this Order prohibits the media from requesting copies of any items that are received by the Court as public exhibits at a hearing, trial, or other proceeding; and FINALLY, IT IS ORDERED that nothing in this Order shall preclude the Government from seeking a further protective order pursuant to Rule 16(d) as to particular items of discovery material.
